

Looking back

Fall 2010/Spring 2011

Foam Dance Party: A group of dancers dressed in like clothes make their way through the crowded courtyard.

CU International: A large group of international students from Cameron took part at the International Festival. The students took part in various aspects of the festival including the Parade of Nations.

Keynote: Dr. Marc Lamont Hill delivers his keynote speech which touched on many aspects that face the United States today. Dr. Hill is an Associate Professor at Columbia University as well as an accomplished newspaper columnist and blogger.

Finding velocity: Assistant Professor in the Department of Physical Sciences, Dr. Ramiro Moro demonstrates velocities of different objects and resisting forces acting on those objects to the students during the First Annual Phys Quest.

Queen of the ceremony: Nella Ettienne was crowned the Queen of the First Miss Spirit Awards Pageant.

Super homecoming week: Students dressed up as their favorite superheroes while participating in the Super Homecoming dance held on Feb. 24 at MCC ballroom.

Crowning: 18-year-old freshman Chaira Flanders was crowned Miss Black CU 2011. She was the youngest participant of the night and her platform was self-respect.

Dashain festival: A CU Nepali student performs during the celebration of Dashain.

Go with the beat: Participants of the CU Zumba class follow the beats of the music with steps as led by instructor Robin Eichenauer.

Research Day: Students and faculty from many different institutions presented their research in poster format for those in attendance to view.

Community Service: As a form of community service the International Club takes part in activities like clothes drives that are donated to Goodwill.

CU Saturday

Senior Art Exhibition

Page design by Rashmi Thapaliya
Photos Courtesy of Office of Public Affairs, CUNA, International Club
Photos by Jim Horinek, Ishia Salibus, Manal Elbak, Rashmi Thapaliya